

ACSR/NAIW SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Accredited Customer Service Representative program (ACSR) is a national industry certification program for the training of personal, commercial and life/health service representatives. Developed by the Independent Insurance Agents & Brokers of America, Inc. (IIABA) and American Institute for CPCU (AICPCU), this program provides intermediate level training in all aspects of agency operations, account development, errors and omissions, and technical insurance coverages.

IIABA and AICPCU, to further promote and assist the independent insurance agencies' commitment to excellence, is pleased to award the following scholarships at the annual National Association of Insurance Woman (NAIW) convention.

Four full scholarships to take all classes online to earn the ACSR personal, commercial or life/health designation

For the full scholarship winners, after completing all required courses, the winners will be permitted to use ACSR after their name and will receive a certificate suitable for framing.

One scholarship to take one ACSR personal, commercial or life/health class

The winning participant will select an ACSR class of their choice from a participating IIABA state association or through the Virtual University.

The following eligibility criteria must be adhered to in order to qualify for the scholarship:

- Candidate must be a current and active member of the National Association of Insurance Women.
- Candidate must work at an IIABA member agency.
- Candidate intends on completing and achieving the ACSR designation within three years or taking the ACSR class within one year.
- Candidate is currently employed full-time and has worked in the insurance industry for a minimum of one year.
- Candidate expects to continue their career for the next three years in the insurance industry.

NAIW and participating IIABA state associations will solicit candidates during the year using the ACSR/NAIW Scholarship Application. All applications must be postmarked no later than April 15, 2010. Any applications received after the deadline may be considered for the next scholarship period. All fully completed applications will be reviewed and the individual winners selected by the IIABA Virtual University Curriculum & Research Subcommittee.

Applications must be returned to:

IIABA
